

Times of India

dt. 21-11-2012

Vadodara bizman pulls off unique protest

Vadodara: Commuters passing from Rhino Circle Road wore a surprised look on Tuesday evening when they saw a luxury car being pulled by six donkeys on the main road. An aggrieved city-based businessman chose this unique way of expressing his dissatisfaction towards services provided by the automobile company and dealer from whom he purchased the car. He roped in six donkeys to pull the car to protest against the alleged incompetent service.

"I purchased the car in July and since then I have been facing constant problems. The dealers had

Ashwin Rajput

Donkeys pulling a luxury car in Vadodara made promise that I would get proper service if the car breaks down. But when the front glass wiper of the car broke down during monsoon in Ahmedabad, I didn't get proper service," said Kumud Patel. TNN